

THE
Final
Straw
A WEEKLY ANARCHIST SHOW

MAY 2022

CATALOG OF TRANSCRIBED RADIO EPISODES,
AVAILABLE TO PRINT AT: <https://thefinalstrawradio.noblogs.org>

AUG 2016

Keep Hoods Yours

A conversation with a member of Keep Hoods Yours. Keep Hoods Yours, or KHY, is a radical graffiti crew based in the SF Bay Area that organizes against gentrification, against sexual predators in the scene, against racism and more. During the conversation, we'll hear about the rebel cultural car events called Sideshows, the police killing of Richard Perkins during one of these Sideshows, KHY participation in uprisings against the Ferguson verdict, resistance to Fast Agent and poning of Kenny Truong and the shutdown of racist, gentrifying business "Locals Corner" in the Mission District.

DEC 2016

Grand Jury Resistance at Standing Rock

An anarchist legal worker who has been participating in resistance at Standing Rock in so called North Dakota. This interview is specifically about the grand jury summons which was recently served to someone who was struggling at Standing Rock, we speak about what a grand jury is and how people might resist them, also a bit about what it means for this movement to have a grand jury subpoena occur at this moment.

The Final Straw Radio, PO Box 6004, Asheville, NC, 28816

MAR 2017Anarchist Thoughts on Tactics at Standing Rock

William speaks with Noah, who is a well established movement medic, anarchist, and participant in #NoDAPL at Standing Rock, about his experiences and analyses of how this resistance was organized and how it developed. We talk about a wide ranging set of topics, from what worked in the camps to what the failings were, and how resistance to extraction industries could look moving forward.

DEC 2017Walidah Imarisha on Angels With Dirty Faces, Accountability Processes, and more

William and Disembodied Voice had the chance to interview Walidah Imarisha, who is an Oregon based writer, educator, public scholar and spoken word artist about her book Angels With Dirty Faces, her 2016 book out from AK Press and IAS, which highlights three distinct experiences that are all in different degrees tangential to the realities inherent to the prison industrial complex.

FEB 2018Keep Loxicha Free!: A conversation with Bruno Renero-Hannan about Political Imprisonment and Indigenous Resistance in Oaxaca

A conversation with Bruno Renero-Hannan, who is an anarchist historical anthropologist from Mexico City, about their solidarity work around two of the original 250 Loxicha Prisoners in the state of Oaxaca. This rebellion and imprisonment occurred almost simultaneously to the Zapatista rebellion in Chiapas in the mid-late 90s. We talk about the long and complex history of this case, the similarities and differences between this uprising and that of the Zapatistas, the ongoing political repression of Alvaro Ramirez and Abraham Ramirez, and the economic solidarity push being organized by our guest.

SEPT 2018Kevin Rashid Johnson on the Prison Strike

An interview we conducted with Kevin "Rashid" Johnson. Rashid is a co-founder of the New Afrikan Black Panther Party and is the Minister of Defense from within it's Prison Chapter. He is the author of two books available from Kersplebedeb, Defying the Tomb & Panther Vision, both collections of Rashid's art and essays on capitalism, racism, imperialism and his view of a road towards liberation. Rashid is a Maoist and presents some interesting arguments in his writings.

FEB 2019Anarchists In Conflict: Rojava + Yellow Vest Movement

This week on The Final Straw, the episode's theme is anarchist interventions in struggles around the world. We'll be sharing audios from comrades in the A-Radio Network, which just had it's 5th Annual Gathering in Zurich, Switzerland.

Latorraca Center. 40+ prisoners engaged in hunger strike for 17 days, fighting for issues like protesting mold, little food, lack of visitation and other issues. The hunger strike ended March 28th, despite the disrespect of the jail administration.

APRIL 20222 Radical Ukrainian Voices

This week, we had 3 audio segments, but two are going into this zine. Maria of Anarchist Black Cross Kyiv speaks about efforts against the Russian invasion of Ukraine, followed by Mari, a punk rocker currently in Lviv who is supporting leftists in the territorial defense. You'll also hear a segment by anarchist prisoner Sean Swain.

The Interregnum: Roundtable with Vicky Osterweil

An informal round table discussion that co-hosts Scott and Amar had alongside Vicky Osterweil, talking about a "The Interregnum: The George Floyd Uprising, the coronavirus pandemic, and the emerging social revolution," published on the Haters Cafe. This article points to the many ways the George Floyd uprising, the covid 19 pandemic, the rise of anti-work, and what the article calls the Great Refusal (a pivot from the 'Great Resignation' nomenclature of some mass media) have all created the conditions for a possible broadscale social revolution.

Strategies For Ecological Revolution From Below with Peter Gelderloos

A conversation with anarchist author and activist, Peter Gelderloos about his latest book, The Solutions Are Already Here: Strategies For Ecological Revolution From Below. We speak about critiques of science and Western Civilization that Peter levels, as well as the centrality of struggling on the ground we stand on, creating autonomous infrastructure, resisting colonial extractivism and the need for imagination and care as we tear down this ecocidal system.

Earthbound Farmers Almanac and Food Autonomy in Bulbancha

We're joined this week by some of the folks behind the Earthbound Farmer's Almanac, a self-published annual collection of art, comics, facts, articles and incitements to challenge us to thicken our relationship to the land and grow autonomy against state, colonialism and capitalism. We also talk about spreading food forests and building neighborly food resilience with Lobelia Commons and a little about Ndn Bayou Food Forest (formerly the L'eau Et La Vie anti-pipeline camp).

FEB 2022Cory Doctorow on “Walkaway” (rebroadcast)

Sci-fi and picture book author, technologist and social critic Cory Doctorow on his novel Walkaway about themes of open source technologies, class society, post-scarcity economics, ecological remediation, drop-out culture and liberatory social models.

Keith Lamar from Death Row (rebroadcast)

A 2020 chat with Keith Lamar aka Bomani Shakur who is facing execution on November 16th 2023. We hope you enjoy his insights and check out his support website, KeithLamar.Org and get involved in helping him fight for his life and for justice.

Anarchists in Ukraine Against War

Ilya, a Russian anarchist in Kyiv speaks about the relationship between Russia and Ukraine, the Maidan uprising and war in the Donbass, resistance to the current invasion & the Putin regime, conspiracy theories about Ukraine promoted by Russia/Russian-aligned media outlets, critiques of the Ukrainian state, and anarchists choosing their own path of self-defense and revolutionary mutual aid.

MAR 2022Monarchy in the UK

Jon Bigger talks about the status of the monarchy in the UK, the power it wields, the interventions it makes into parliamentary procedure and where we might see hopes of challenging it from an anarchist approach. Jon is an anarchist who is involved with the Anarchism Research Group, writes a column on UK politics at Freedom News and has been involved in the project Class War.

A Russian Anarchist on the Ukraine War

A Russian anarchist in Europe speaks about the invasion of Ukraine, a bit about the resistance inside of Russia to the war drums & the Putin regime, the dangers of a nuclear conflict, the impacts of increased sanctions & anarchists organizing across the borders of Russia, Ukraine and Belarus against the war and tyranny.

Updates from Afghanistan and Iran

We're joined again by Aryanum, a member of the Federation of Anarchism Era, mostly made up of anarchists from Iran and Afghanistan. We get updates about the situation of anarchists, atheists and feminists in Afghanistan under the Taliban or in an effort to escape as refugees, but we also get a few updates from Iran as well, including the regime's founding of a national anarchist group.

Merced Prisoner Hunger Strikes & Eric King Trial Ends

A chat with California-based activist Victoria from Merced Under Construction, who talks to us about the prisoner hunger strikes at Merced County Jail and John

MARCH 2019Ni Frontiers Ni Prison

Today we have a two part show! In the first part we are presenting a conversation with someone from Ni Frontiers Ni Prison, which is a group in so called Canada that is resisting the proposed construction of a new migrant prison in Laval, a town just outside of Montreal. This is a transcript of the original audio, read for the show by Grier, shout out to him! In this interview we talk about the prison and what it would mean for people who'd be most affected by it, the general rise of far right sentiment in so called Canada, and many more topics.

JUNE 2019Kuwasi Balagoon: A Soldier's Story

This week Bursts spoke with Matt Meyer about a new edition of Kuwasi Balagoon: A Soldier's Story (PM Press), which details the life of Black Panther and anarchist Kuwasi Balagoon, They talk about Kuwasi's life, his approaches to anarchism, and his queerness among many other topics.

July 2019Resisting Tyranny in Hong Kong

We spoke with Ahkok who identifies as a humanitarian, antifascist and musician who grew up in Hong Kong and has participated in protests over the years including the Umbrella Movement and current protests today. We talk about the mindset of the Hong Kong protests, the situation in China, decolonization, racism and more.

JAN 2020Perspectives from Iranian Anarchists

This week on The Final Straw we feature a chat with a translator of the Anarchist Union of Afghanistan and Iran to share perspectives from membership in Iran and abroad about resistance to the regime from within, solidarity from abroad, the impact of US Sabre-rattling.

An Anarcha-Feminist View on GANA Govt in El Salvador

A conversation with Elisa, an anarchafeminist in San Salvador, El Salvador, talking about the new neo-liberal government of Nayib Bukele's GANA party, repression, immigration, relation to the US and anarchist organizing there.

El Salvador: Una Perspectiva Anarcha-Feminista

Nos complace presentar una conversación con una compañera feminista anarcha, Elisa, en San Salvador, El Salvador. Elisa comparte sus puntos de vista sobre el régimen neoliberal del partido GANA de Nayib Bukele que asumió la presidencia en febrero pasado, la relación de El Salvador con los Estados Unidos, el gobierno anterior del FMLN, la inmigración y la organización anarquista.

FEB 2020Social Justice and Struggle in Lebanon and Syria: Joey Ayoub and Leila Al-Shami

A chat with Joey Ayoub and Leila Al-Shami. In this conversation, Joey tells us of some of the history of Lebanon, since the civil war that ended in 1990 and up to the current demonstrations against the clientelist warlords in power in that country. Intertwined with this, Leila speaks about the sparking of the resistance to Bashar Al-Assad in Syria, the tumult of the civil war, and the state of anti-authoritarian and social justice organizing and media work in that country.

APRIL 2020Incarcerated Journalist and Organizer, Jason Renard Walker

Jason Renard Walker, Minister of Labor of the New Arikian Black Panther Party (Prison Chapter) and author of "Reports from Within The Belly Of The Beast: Torture and Injustice Inside Texas Department of Criminal Justice" talks about his journalism, activism and troubles in the Texas prison system.

Anarchist Resistance In Prison: Jennifer A. Rose

A correspondence with anarchist prisoner & contributor to Fire Ant Journal, Jennifer Rose about her life, activism & being a trans woman in the CA prison system.

Anarchist Resistance In Prison: Comrade Z

An interview with Julio A Zuniga, aka Comrade Z, incarcerated anarchist, artist & IWOC organizer in the Texas prison system about conditions in Dirty Darrington.

JUNE 2020Hotel Sanctuary in MPLS

We got to connect with Rosemary, who is an organizer in Minneapolis, about the liberation of a former Sheraton Hotel in that city and its slow but steady transformation into something that is becoming so much more than a housing cooperative.

A View on the Capitol Hill Autonomous Zone

A conversation with D, a Black Anarchist who grew up in and around Capitol Hill district in Seattle about that neighborhood and adjacent Central District's rebelliousness and conflictual history with the Eastern Precinct that the Seattle Police abandoned, about his knowledge of the protests of past weeks and the retreat of cops from their pen.

Maxida Mäarak and Gabriel Khun on Liberating Sápmi

An interview on the 2019 PM Press release Liberating Sápmi: Indigenous Resistance in Europe's Far North. This book details a political history of the Sámi people whose traditional lands extend along the north most regions of so called Sweden, Norway, Finland, and parts of Russia.

The Perils of Prison Mail Digitization

Leigh from prison books collective in Durham, North Carolina, tells us about recent privatization of prison mail in NC by TextBehind to scan all mail, track their contents, surveil the outside supporters, the work of sending literature, to incarcerated folks privatization and digitization of other services, and what literature gets rejected.

Ecological Uprising, Antifascism & Anarchist Organizing in Serbia

We speak with Marko about those Ecological Uprising protests of December 2021 in Serbia, the western NGO influences, labor and solidarity organizing with the Anarcho-Syndicalist Initiative of IWA-AIT, challenges faced by leftist anti-authoritarian organizers in former Yugoslavia. He also speaks about his experience of the covid pandemic, anti-vaxers and the far right in general around Serbia and more.

Housing Struggles in Asheville

A conversation with folks involved in the Aston Park Build, a daily event to hold space in Asheville, and a wider part of organizing here to demand safer space & redistribution of wealth to care for houseless folks and relieve the incredible strains on housing affordability in Asheville. We talk about the park actions, the housing crisis and service industry wage woes, local government coddling of business owners and police repression of folks on the margins.

JAN 2022William C. Anderson on The Nation on No Map

Scott with William C. Anderson about his new book The Nation on No Map: Black Anarchism and Abolition. In this interview they speak on the book and its many facets, and Black anarchism more broadly, some of the failures of euro-centric and white anarchism, and many, many more topics.

The Battle for Abortion and Reproductive Autonomy with Bay Ostrach

Bayla Ostrach speaks about the battle for abortion and reproductive autonomy in the so-called US, studies of the same in Catalunya, the challenges faced by independent clinics against the business model of clinic chains like Planned Parenthood, legal and material pressure and attacks by anti-abortion extremists and stigma-free abortion and reproductive care more broadly.

Exile, World-Systems Analysis and Anarchism with Andrej Grubačić

Andrej Grubačić talks about anarchism, the Yugoslav experiment, exile, World-Systems Analysis, Rojava, his friend David Graeber and other topics.

Anarchist Struggle in Rojava

Robin Goldman, member of anarchist combat medic collective Anarchist Struggle talks about their experiences of asymmetric warfare waged by Turkey and its proxies in the TFSA, the culture of TA right now, study and critique, the medical work they're doing, queerness in Rojava and other topics.

Asheville Survival Program

Asheville Survival Program is an autonomous mutual aid network formed in early 2020 at the start of the Covid-19 pandemic in so-called Asheville, NC. They are building mutual aid with oppressed communities, promoting solidarity and sharing outside the bounds of State structure through their streetside camping gear, food and solidarity distro and their “Until We’re All Free” Store, holding a distribution space open a few days a week walk-up visits and delivering groceries through a network of drivers.

NOV 2021

The Russian Political Landscape and Anarchist Prisoners

First up, author and journalist Dmitry Okrest spoke about the state of anarchist and antifascist movements in Russia, the politics of Putin’s United Russia party, nazis and the far right in Russia and successes of the Communist Party in electoral politics. Then, Moscow Anarchist Black Cross member-in-exile, Antii Rautiainen, adds some more detail on repression of anarchists and antifascists in Russian prisons.

Mèo Mun, Anarchist Views from Vietnam

Mèo Mun is an anarchist collective working to make anarchist materials and ideas more accessible to a Vietnamese audience, together with providing an analysis of social struggles from a Vietnamese anarchist lens.

Eric Stanley on Structuring Antagonism & the Trans/Queer Ungovernable

This week, Scott spoke with Eric A Stanley about their new book, Atmospheres of Violence: Structuring Antagonism and the Trans/Queer Ungovernable. Eric A. Stanley is an associate professor in the Department of Gender and Women’s Studies at the University of California, Berkeley.

Grief, Storytelling & Ritual in Liberation Struggle with adrienne maree brown

A conversation with adrienne maree brown about their recent novella, Grievors, the first of a trilogy published by AK Press. We dig into the book which is set in Detroit where a new illness that seems to only effect Black people. We talk also about the role of speculative fiction in liberation movements, spirituality, ritual and grief in our organizing and holding space for inter-generational struggle.

DEC 2021

The Case of Daniel Baker: Online Speech and Community Defense

We speak with Jack and Eric, supporters of the US Army veteran, leftist activist and former YPG volunteer medic Daniel Alan Baker. Daniel Baker is serving 44 months in Federal prison for social media calls for community defense against an advertised armed right wing incursion in Tallahassee on January 20th, 2021.

Pan-African Social Ecology: A conversation with Dr Modibo Kadalie

This week, we’re happy to air a conversation I had with the author and activist, Modibo Kadalie, author of Pan-African Social Ecolog. Modibo talks about autonomous community organizing, the contradictions between the survival of the species and capitalism, CLR James, the pandemic, direct democracy, Geechee history in south so-called Georgia, the weaknesses of nationalism, hierarchy and revering individual historical figures & the strength of spontaneity and community action.

SEPT 2020

The Intertwined Histories of Queerness and Anarchism

Author, Kristian Williams about his new book Resist Everything Except Temptation: The Anarchist Philosophy of Oscar Wilde which was released in June 2020 from AK Press.

NOV 2020

Cora Borradaile on Phone Extraction, Cloning and Keyword Warrants

Speaking with Cora Borradaile, who sits on the advisory board of the Civil Liberties Defense Center and works around issues of tech security in movements and is an associate professor at OSU.

JAN 2021

An Anarchist View from Havana: Isbel Diaz Torres

This week on the Final Straw, we’re sharing another audio gift from comrades. Isbel Diaz Torres is a participant in the Taller Libertario Alfredo López / ABRA in Havana, Cuba, recorded in late 2018.

Organizing To End Prison Slavery with Bennu Hannibal Ra Sun

A conversation with Bennu Hannibal Ra Sun, co-founder of the Free Alabama Movement and the National Freedom Movement, which is helping coordinate prisoner-led organizing across the so-called US.

ShineWhite on Turning Razor Wire Plantations Into Schools of Liberation

The following is a conversation with ShineWhite. ShineWhite is the former spokesperson for the National White Panther Organization, a part of the United Panther Movement. There was quite recently a split in the UPM and ShineWhite is now affiliated with the Revolutionary Intercommunal Black Panther Party.

The Security State, Far Right

Spencer Sunshine on the far right and the government’s reaction following the riot on January 6th in DC.

Media Post Jan 6th

Perspectives on political content removal and social media from anarchist media platforms ItsGoingDown and crimethInc.

FEB 2021Building Working Class History

The new book, “Working Class History: Everyday Acts of Resistance”, that WCH has published through PM Press, their archives, methodology, the project of popularizing working class, movement and human-sized history and a bunch more.

adrienne maree brown on Cancellation, Abolition and Healing

For the hour, Scott and adrienne speak about “We Will Not Cancel Us and Other Dreams of Transformative Justice”, her latest booklet available through AK Press, as well as sci-fi, abolition, harm, accountability and healing.

Chronicling Prisoner Uprisings During Pandemic

We spoke with a member of the Perilous Chronicle about their report “First 90 Days of Prisoner Resistance to COVID-19” concerning the spike in measured prisoner resistance in the forms of work and hunger strikes, fights with guards, riots and escapes from facilities ranging from county jails, state prisons, ICE detention facilities and federal prisons across the so-called US and so-called Canada.

In Defense of Looting with Vicky Osterweil

A conversation that I had with writer, anarchist, and agitator Vicky Osterweil about her recently published book In Defense of Looting, a Riotous History of Uncivil Action (Bold Type Press in August of 2020).

MARCH 2021Aric McBay on “Full Spectrum Resistance”

This week we are re-airing a conversation that Bursts had last year with Aric McBay, who is an anarchist, organizer, farmer, and author about his most recent book called Full Spectrum Resistance published by Seven Stories Press in May 2019.

An Ethiopian Anarchist Perspective on the War in Tigray

Anner is an Ethiopian member of Horn Anarchists, an anarchist group based in east Africa, particularly in Ethiopia and the Ethiopian diaspora. The group hopes to organize and spread anarchist ideas in the horn of Africa. Anner talks about the group, the history of post-Junta Ethiopia, the context of the armed conflict in Tigray, the fighting factions and the displacement and violence suffered by residents as well as the ethnic hatred against Tigrayans by the government of Abi Ahmed.

Steve Martinez Still Resists Grand Jury Related To Dakota Access Pipeline Struggle

For the hour, we hear from Chava Shapiro with the Tucson Anti-Repression Committee and James Clark, a lawyer who works with the National Lawyers Guild, talk about Steve’s case, the dangers of Grand Juries, and why it’s imperative for movements to support their incarcerated comrades. He has been released since this episode aired.

Stop The Legal Lynching of Ernest Johnson

We spoke with Elyse Max about the life, media and court situation of Ernest Johnson, his twice overturned death penalty, the links between the lynching of Black people in the US and the current death penalty, intersections of race and class in who are the victims of capital cases and who sit on death rows, the mishandling of Ernest’s intellectual disability in the case and other topics.

Firearm Safety and Education with Comrade Center

A chat with Comrade Center, a leftist project focused on accessible education around armed self-defense in so-called New Hampshire. We talk about mainstream, reactionary gun culture in the US, the impact of the NRA, the importance and empowerment of education around fire arms & their work to purchase and maintain a space for armed self-defense education.

Stop The Mountain Valley Pipeline

This week, we’ll speak with two longtime activists resisting the MVP’s construction about the pipeline, some of the resistance history, MVP’s attempt in federal court to intimidate and identify folks who run the campaign’s social media accounts’ called and how to get involved in the struggle to fight climate change.

OCT 2021Belarusian Uprising Revisited

This week we spoke with Vasili and Maria, two Belarusian anarchists living abroad about the aftermath of the 2020 Uprising in their country of birth, lessons learned, the current political prisoners and the Lukashenko regime’s attempts to attack dissidents abroad.

“For Trans Liberation, Capitalism Must Be Abolished”

A chat that Scott Branson had about Transgender Marxism with Jules Gleeson and M.E. O’Brien about the collective, material process of transition, trans visibility, assimilation & liberation; the history of Gay Liberation and Trans movements; being Trans in the workplace; care work and family abolition; and more.

Fat Liberation for Revolutionary Leftists with Autumn

Autumn (she/her/hers) speaks on Fat Liberation in all its many nuances: the pervasive, classist, racist, and colonial nature of fatphobia both in mainstream society and left spaces/thought, and the roots of Fat Liberation as a structure which originates and lives with Black, Indigenous, and brown, trans and disabled people.

Support Ryan Roberts and #KillTheBill Bristol defendants!

Tom and Nicole of Bristol Anarchist Black Cross talk about the #KillTheBill, police violence in the UK, anti-repression work of Bristol ABC & Bristol Defendant Solidarity, the legacy of former Bristol resident Anna Campbell, the cases of the Colston 4 & Toby Shone, prison expansion in the UK and more.

AUG 2021Asheville's Policing Crisis with Ursula Wren of Asheville Free Press

This week, we spoke with local journalist, activist, abolitionist and anarchist, Ursula Wren of the AvlFree.Press about Asheville's "crisis in policing", a brief blooper roll of Asheville police foibles over the last decade, homeless camp evictions, prior and current efforts to restructure public safety, the reactionary business effort to bolster the police with blue ribbons of support, housing issues and other fare.

Combating Movement Misogyny

This week on the show, William and Scott are presenting an interview with Alice and Doll Parts, two people working toward Disability Justice and Mad Activism (among other things), about the prevalence of movement misogyny in antifascist currents, world building as antifascist and as community defense, ways to rethink harmful patterns in movements, and some things we can do to make each other safer.

Unity And Struggle Through The Bars with Mwalimu Shakur

This week on the show, you'll hear our conversation with Mwalimu Shakur, a politicized, New Afrikan revolutionary prison organizer incarcerated at Corcoran prison in California. Mwalimu has been involved in organizing, including the cessations of hostilities among gangs and participation in hunger strikes against unending solitary confinement when he was at Pelican Bay Prison in 2013, helping to found the Incarcerated Workers Organizing Committee (IWOC), Liberation Schools of self-education and continues mentoring younger prisoners.

Sonja on NSU-Watch and Autonomous Anti-Fascist Research

This week on the show, we share an interview with Sonja, an antifascist activist and researcher based in the state of Hessen, Germany, and involved in the network known as NSU-Watch. We talk about the NSU complex case, autonomous antifascist organizing and research, centering the needs of victims of fascist violence, international fascist ties, the Day X conspiracy and the case of Franco A.

"Representing Radicals" Lawyers' Guide from Tilted Scales

This week, you'll hear Jay from the Tilted Scales Collective talk about this book, about anti-repression work, and about this book's attempt to shift the culture of legal representation by intervening with arguments by radical lawyers.

SEPT 2021"Interpreting Realities: Aligning Fragments Within the Prisoners Resistance Movement"

This is a segment of a series of political discussions focused on building support for Jailhouse Lawyers Speak 2021 National call to action #ShutEmDown2021 along with support for the 2022 National Prisoner' Strike & Boycott.

Shut Em Down 2021: Jailhouse Lawyers Speak

An interview with Comrade Chux, a member of Jailhouse Lawyers Speak (an autonomous network of incarcerated activists from across the so-called US). They have been engaged in organizing and calling for the 2016, 2018 and 2022 Nationwide Prison Strike activities. Chux speaks about the call for folks on the outside to engage for Abolition, we talk about Abolition, Black August and other topics.

April 2021Queer Activist Perspectives from Southern Appalachia

This week on the show, we bring you the audio of an activist panel from the recent Queer Conference held online by University of North Carolina, Asheville, in March of 2021.

Alive With Resistance: Diasporic Reflections on the Revolt in Myanmar

This is a conversation with Geoff Aung, a Burmese American Marxist anthropology Phd candidate living abroad, about the current uprising, repression and revolutionary potentials in Myanmar. We discuss the evolution of tactics on the ground as revolutionaries adapt to the murders of protesters by the state. Geoff also talks about the ways in which this movement is different from similar current movements in Asia and some of the historical context of struggle in Myanmar.

Veronza Bowers, Jr: 47 Years of Justice Denied

Former Black Panther Party member Veronza describes his upbringing, his experiences of racism, his time in prison, his case, his views on the burgeoning War on Terror, and the situation of political prisoners in the US. He was convicted of the death of a US Park Ranger on the word of two prison informants who were paid and received reduced sentences. He continues to assert his innocence and has since been illegally held beyond his release date of June 21, 2005.

An Indian Anarchist on Anti Caste Organizing and More!

An interview with Pranav Jeevan P, who is a student, a writer, an anti-caste activist, and an Indian anarchist living in the state of Kerala. You will read Pranav explaining how he got into anarchism, how anarchistic praxis unfolds in India, some about the origins of and worldwide implications of the caste system, anti-caste organizing and how anarchism feeds it, and about how the BJP and Hindutva have real influence on people's lives and destinies.

May 2021Max Fox on Chitty's "Sexual Hegemony"

This week, you'll hear Scott's chat with Max Fox, editor of the late Christopher Chitty's book, "Sexual Hegemony: Statecraft, Sodomy and Capital in the Rise of the World System", published by Duke University Press in 2020. For the hour they spoke on the failures of Gay Liberation, connections between sexual identity, class and the state and how sexuality ties into current liberation movements.

Shane Burley on “Why We Fight”

This week, we present a conversation with Shane Burley, author of the new AK Press book, “Why We Fight: Essays on Fascism, Resistance, and Surviving the Apocalypse”. For the hour, we speak about the contents of the book, anti-fascism, toxic masculinity, pushing racists and fascists out of cultural space, antisemitism (including in the left), conspiricism, right wing publishing and other topics.

Palestine and Challenging Settler Colonial Imaginaries

A portion of our 2018 interview with filmmaker and activist Yousef Natsha about his film about his hometown, Hebron, and the Israeli occupation of Palestine. As well as a panel from the 2021 UNC Queer Studies Conference called “No Blank Slates: A Discussion of Utopia, Queer Identity, and Settler Colonialism.”

Colectivo Subversión on Protest in Colombia and Global Battles for Dignity

An interview with María Kamila, who is a teacher and a popular journalist who works with the anarchist Colombian journalism and counter-information collective in Bogotá called Subversión. This interview covers many topics, ranging from a historical contextualization of the current moment of protests and riots in Colombia, who are on the front lines of the protests, Indigenous solidarity with anarchist accomplices via the Minga – which is a pre-colonial term for collaboration, meeting or communal action – , and many more topics.

IDOC Watch, Leon Benson and Abolitionist Organizing in Indiana

Koby Bluit talks about Leon Benson and his struggle for release after 23 years in prison for a murder charge that he has consistently asserts to have not committed. Then, you’ll hear from Landis Reynolds, a founder of IDOC Watch currently held in Westville Correctional Institution and Ray, an outside organizer with IDOC Watch. They talk about their work to start study groups in prison, promote Prison Lives Matter, support jailhouse lawyers and recruit outside lawyers and more.

JUNE 2021Making Links: June 11th, Long-term Prisoners, Anti-Repression Work

June 11th is the international day of solidarity with Marius Mason and all long-term anarchist prisoners. We want to explore the connections between long-term prisoner support and anti-repression efforts around recent uprisings, a sharp reminder to us that the difference between a status of imprisoned or not is often tenuous and temporary. With thousands of arrests for protesting, rioting, and property destruction from the George Floyd uprising, we must be preparing for the possibility that more of our friends and other rebels may end up in prison.

Eric Laursen on Anarchist Conceptions of The State

A conversation about the recent book The Operating System: An Anarchist Theory of the Modern State . We share Scott’s conversation with Eric, theorizing the State as computer operating system, the necessity of social revolution prior to a political revolution, etc.

Cindy Milstein On Mending The World As Jewish Anarchists

Scott and anarchist, author and organizer Cindy Milstein speak. The conversation is framed around the recent book “There Is Nothing So Whole As A Broken Heart: Mending The World As Jewish Anarchists”. They speak about walking through the world as queer, non-binary Jewish anarchists, Palestine and Israel, finding increasing healing and ritual among diasporic Jewish anarchist and other communities, antisemitism from the right & the left, argumentation and more.

Free Xinachtli! and Updates from Greece

This week, we’re featuring two main portions of the show. You’ll hear updates from Greek comrades at free social radio in Thessaloniki and Radiozones Of Subversive Expression, pirate radio in Athens. Both of these were featured on the latest episode of Bad News: Angry Voices from Around The World. Prior to that, you’ll hear anarchist prisoner Xinachtli talk about his life and his case.

JULY 2021Joshua Clover on Riots and Strikes

Scott and Joshua talk about proletarian resistance to the capitalist economy through struggles against circulation of commodities and to fix their prices and struggles against exploitation and to set the price of wages in the workplace, how these methods are not as indistinguishable as we are told and the future of struggle against capitalism and extraction.

Federation of Anarchism Era on Iran and Afghanistan

A member of the Federation of Anarchism Era talks about the election of Ebrahim Raisi to the Iranian presidency, a man who helped to oversee the death committees that executed thousands of political prisoners, as well as about covid in Iran, the election of Biden in the US, the recent release of prisoners, outcomes of the 2019/202 uprisings as well as viewpoints of members of the FAE in Afghanistan on the Taliban expansion as the US withdraws troops.

Aishah Shahidah Simmons on Love WITH Accountability

Aishah Shahidah Simmons has done just an immense amount of work over the years to disrupt and end the patterns of sexual abuse and assault within marginalized communities. In this interview we talk about her background, how better to think about concepts like accountability, what doing this work has been like for her as an out lesbian woman, and about her book Love WITH Accountability.

content notice: we will be talking about some difficult topics in this interview

Dixie Be Damned

A 2015 conversation with Saralee Stafford and Neal Shirley, editors and authors of their book out from AK Press entitled “Dixie Be Damned: 300 years of Insurrection in the American South”. The book is a study of Maroon, Indigenous, White, Black, worker, farmer, slave, indentured, women and men wrestling against institutions of power for autonomy and self-determination.